

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Unity Mark Approved by Mechanics Committee

The women's basketball mechanics committee has approved the SAAC Unity Patch for officials to wear on their pre-game jacket. The decision to wear this patch rests solely with the officials; the committee suggests that wearing this patch should be a choice and not mandated or prohibited by any party.

Information on the SAAC Unity Mark:

The Unity Mark represents a focus of bringing people together to strive for the betterment of all people. More information is available on NCAA.ORG.

Location:

The patch should be placed on the LEFT upper sleeve, 5 inches down from the shoulder seam.

Ordering Information:

Officiating supply houses have been notified and may carry the patch for individual order.
